DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Invention I in the reply filed on 22 July 2005 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 10 - 36 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 22 July 2005.

Drawings

3. New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because Figures 4 and 7 - 11B are informal or include informal aspects. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5, 8, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Diab et al. Diab et al. teach an oximeter arrangement (Figure 12; column 15, line 37 - column 16, line 34) for processing red and infrared light samples including performing Fourier transforms on the measured data. The frequency domain information can be further processed to extract the pulse rate information (see Figure 12 elements 1260, 1252 and Figure 17 and the description of "Transform Based Pulserate Detection" which begins in column 20). The Fourier transforms can be implemented with fast Fourier transforms (column 22, lines 54 - 59).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 3, 4, 6, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Diab et al. as applied to claims 1 and 5 above. Diab et al. teach that fast Fourier transforms may be used in processing the signals, but do not teach particular details of the processing. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to implement the processing of the fast Fourier transforms with known steps, including adjusting the size of the transformed portion to correspond with a desired signal under analysis. Further, for analysis of a periodic signal, such as heart rate, it is known to limit the analyzed data to data that corresponds with the period of the signal to obtain the desired results.
